Get out your kite, attach the streamers and fly it high. Knitting this month is over the top and we're excited. The exhilaration of outstanding new product is always a lift. We shopped the trade shows, visited with our suppliers and we think the spring line up is superb. Hand dyed yarns are one of our focuses and we've added the talents of Iris from Art Yarns to our repertoire of not to be beat fibers. Look for silks, lightweight mohair, glitz, cotton and cashmere from her dye pots.

We looked ahead and scheduled an incredible Dry Needle Felting class with Robyn from Pagewood Farm. Her yarns are fiber candy and the technique of applying them to an exquisite silk scarf is one worthy of learning. The dates are set for Sunday, March 15th in Redondo Beach and Sunday March 22nd in Santa Monica. Call us for more details.

Filatura di Crosa and Stacy Charles along with Gedifra, Noro, Lana Grossa, Trendsetter's and GGH took out all the stops and whirled into spring with yummy new product. Look for them soon on our shelves. Oh, by the way, come take a look at Redondo's new look. We think you'll like it.

This is what it's all about, the joy of the knit. We love the lure of the sparkle, the lush feel of silk running through our fingers. We connect to that inner place as we watch our straw (well, not quite) turn into gold. We love knitting, can't be without it and don't want to be.

Come in and indulge yourself.

SERENADE The “best is yet to come,” has been fulfilled. Art Yarns’ Silk Rhapsody is a blend of mohair, silk and a scattering of glitz, creates our flower petals. Then we’ve worked the centers and outlined the flowers in their Beaded and Sequined Silk. No, it still gets better. Laura Bryant, our friend from Prism, has dyed special their incredible Symphony to match. This sweater is a concerto of color, fiber and design. Don’t miss out. FIRST BLOOM L'Atelier purses are always a treat. This month, Peggy, our purse wizard applies her touch to melding Ozark Yarns’ Companion, a hand dyed wool and their over the top Opulent into a magic show of flower power. The handle and the body of the bag are knit in the wool and felted, then the Opulent justifies its name. Knitted flowers dot the landscape and we’ve included the large mother of pearl button to close the show. We know you’ll encore this one. Non Club: $137.70 Club: $103.25
